

7. In case a Man shall ingage with any other Man, that hath a name of credit from him to give the hire, or in the power of Law, you are to determine the Man so Ingaging, or receiving Arles, to belong to the person whom he hath ingaged with, or received Arles from, unless the Master of the House, or the Chief Magistrate of the Burgh within which the Man ingaged or arled dwells, shall before you declare that he intends to put out the Man by himself, and oblige himself to put him out accordingly, in which case he is to belong to the said Master, or Burgh.

[illegible][illegible]

( 3 )
Rendezvous. And the said Lords of Privy Council Do hereby Require the Sheriffs of Shires, and their Deputes, and other Magistrates within this Kingdom, to give all Incouragement and Assistance, to any Officers, who shall be Commissionat to receive and Conduct the Levies within their bounds, and to the Troops or parties which these Officers shall bring along with them, for safe Conducting of the saids Levies, in case it be needful, and that the Officers require the same: And appoints the Steward principal of the Stewarry of Orkney and Zetland, and his Deputes, when the Officers who shall be appointed, Do come to receive the proportion of the Levie to be put out by the said Stewarry, at the said eight Day of March next, To cause transport the men to be Levied in the saids Bounds, from the places they shall be delivered at, to the Town of Frasburgh, and furnish Transport Ships and Men, with due Provisions, for a Guard to the saids Levies, till they be safely Landed and delivered at Frasburgh and that upon their Majesties expenses.

The Lords of their Majesties Privy Council Ordains the above Instructions and Orders of Council to be Printed, and Published at the Mercat-cross of Edinburgh, and appoints Sir James Ogilvie of Chertbiss, their Majesties Solicitor, with all expedition to dispatch away Printed Copies thereof by expresse to the Sheriffs and their Deputes, and the Clerks to the Commissioners of Supply within the severall Shires, who are hereby appointed to intimar the same to the saids Commissioners, that immediately a meeting may be appointed by them thereupon, and the Premisses Published thorow the respective Shires, that all persons concerned may have rimons intimation hereof.

His Subscribers,
Tweedale Cancell. Southerland, Linlithgow, Forfar,
Kintore, Tarbat, Raith, Beilhaven, Wil: Mr. of Forbes,
Ja: Stuart.

Extracted by me

GILBERT ELIOT, cl. in. consilii.

GOD Save King William and Queen Mary.

EDINBURGH.

Printed by the Heirs and Successors of Andrew Anderson, Printer to their most Excellent Majesties,

Ann D D M. 1694.